

2014-2015 Bald Eagle Watch Dates

Kimberly Spears

Looking for a memorable experience this winter? Check out one of the Bald Eagle Watches going on across the state! Take advantage of the below opportunities to see our nation's symbol soar over Oklahoma's lakes or rivers and learn more about Bald Eagle ecology and their recovery story. Contact the individual Bald Eagle Watch host to learn more about registration requirements and meeting locations.

1.) Lake Thunderbird State Park

*December 21 & 28, 2014, January 11 & 25,
February 8 & 22, March 8 & 15, 2015*
(405) 321-4633

2.) Arcadia Lake

January 2, 3 & 4, 2015
(405) 216-7471

3.) Quartz Mountain Nature Park

*January 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, 18, 24, 25, 31 &
February 1, 2015*
(405) 319-8382

4.) Salt Plains National Wildlife Refuge

January 9, 10, 16 & 17, 2015
(580) 626-4794

5.) Greenleaf State Park

January 10, 2015
(918) 487-7125

6.) Chickasaw National Recreation Area

January 10 & 24, 2015
(580) 622-7234

7.) Sequoyah State Park

January 10 & 24, 2015
(918) 772-2108

8.) Kaw Lake

January 17, 2015
(580) 762-9494

9.) Grove

January 24, 2015
(918) 787-6532

10.) Jenks

January 24 & 25, 2015
(918) 810-4492

11.) Washita National Wildlife Refuge

TBD
(580) 664-2205

12.) Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge

TBD
(580) 429-3222

13.) Beavers Bend State Park

November - February
(580) 494-6300

14.) Tishomingo National Wildlife Refuge

Self-guided tour all season long.
(580) 371-2402