

Cottontail rabbits are found throughout Oklahoma around edge cover, brush, briar patches, creek bottoms and swamps. Their summer time diet is made up of green plants while their winter diet is made up of tree bark and twigs.