

FINAL PERFORMANCE REPORT

FEDERAL AID GRANT NO. E-62-RL-1

AN ECOREGION APPROACH TO RECOVERY OF THE OZARK BIG-EARED BAT (CORYNORHINUS TOWNSENDII
INGENS) AND THREE OTHER STATE AND FEDERALLY
LISTED KARST DEPENDANT SPECIES: PHASE 1 & 2

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF WILDLIFE CONSERVATION

November 1, 2004 through October 31, 2009

FINAL PERFORMANCE REPORT

STATE: Oklahoma

GRANT NUMBER: E-62-RL-1

GRANT TITLE: An Ecoregion Approach to Recovery of the Ozark big-eared bat (Corynorhinus townsendii ingens) and three other state and federally listed karst dependant species: Phase 1 & 2.

GRANT PERIOD: 11/01/2004 through 10/31/2009

PROJECT LEADER: Melynda Hickman

SUMMARY OF PROGRESS:

Activities occurring during this grant consisted of gathering all the necessary information and documentation to purchase three properties in Adair county Oklahoma. All properties were purchased as outlined in the project statement and in accordance with conditions outlined by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, WSFRP.

SIGNIFICANT DEVEATIONS: None

Total Cost: $1,030,709.73

Prepared by: John D. Stafford, Federal Aid Coordinator

Approved by: _____

Wildlife Division Administration

Approved by: _____

John D. Stafford, Federal Aid Coordinator